HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The High School orchestra played the funeral march while Mr. Neville carried the casket, tears were shed as the little gold fish was laid to rest.

School has been rather dull since our friends in the country are not attending this week. Due to the severe cold weather.

Curling Bonspiel started Tuesday night. Two games being played. The rest have been postponed till a little warmer weather.

Miss McVeety still has to see the day when her French classes I and II get their work all right. Cheer up! We were not born to be Frenchmen I guess.

Since when has Miss Lockwood started teaching birdies?

A note found in a book at school.

Quote: 1st girl—When did you and Gerald become engaged?

2nd girl—Oh didn't you know? New Year's eve.

1st girl—And when are you to be married?

2nd girl—We hadn't settled that yet.

Unquote: Gerald seems to be the topic of conversation. Who could the girl be??

NUMBER 3

Stanley Orris Buys Grand Forks Gazette

Stanley Orris, who for the past 18 months has published the Champion Chronicle, has announced his purchase of the business of the Gazette Printing Company Limited, of Grand Forks, B. C. The company publishes the Grand Forks Gazette, one of the outstanding weekly newspapers of the coast province.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris and family will leave Champion this week-end to take up residence in Grand Forks.

The Gazette commenced publication some forty-five years ago and has appeared continuously since that date. Mining, lumbering, seed growing and fruit are the principal industries of the district served by the paper. Population of the city of Grand Forks is about 1,300 and that of the district about 10,000.

Grand Forks is an incorporated city and possesses its own water and electric light systems. It is situated on the United States border about 450 miles west of Lethbridge. The Kettle flows through the city. About ten miles distant is the beautiful Christina Lake, one of the few warm water lakes in B. C. and a favorite summer resort patronized by residents of the district and many tourists. Many summer homes dot the sandy beaches of the lake.

Mr. Orris purchased the Gazette from Mr. T. A. Love, M. L. A. who has been its publisher for many years. Mr. Love will devote the whole of his time in the future to governmental duties.

Harold Tilson-Jones, of Picture Butte, will succeed Mr. Orris at the Chronicle. Mr. and Mrs. Tilson-Jones came west from Manitoba a year ago to publish the Picture Butte Progress. They have achieved quite a measure of success and are expanding their activities. Mr. Tilson-Jones' father is publisher of the Garden City Times at Magrath.

Local Notes

Mrs. E. B. Siler left Monday for Kalamazoo, Mich., where she will visit with her mother, Mrs. Campbell for a few weeks.

LETTERS FROM THE BOYS IN UNIFORM

—“v”—

December 20, 1942.

Dear Friend:

Just a line to let you know that we landed safe and feeling fine. Everything looks good here, had a real swell trip. I haven't seen any of the boys yet but hope to see some of them soon.

Am thanking you very much for the Chronicle, sure will miss it, they don't carry papers overseas any more so now you can put my name in the other book.

It's been a long struggle to get here but at last I made it. I could write a long letter about the trip but it would be information and would be censored.

Well, tell all the boys hello for me. Must close, wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Your friend,

P. M. Wollersheim.

Extracts from a letter received from C. J. Versluis.

December 20.

Received your November 15th letter and the lovely cake. Received a two weeks' gathering of mail, seven parcels, three letters and a Chronicle, also a chicken packed in butter from Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lund of Queenstown. It was in a lovely condition. We get 2½ ounces of pork four times a week. It is remarkable the amount of money raised for War Bonds. In the past we have suffered many reverses and many confidences have been shaken but there is one man here in whom we over here have had every confidence from start to finish and that is our Commander Andy McNaughton.
